

VANEMPO

— CICIGNANO —

Maluna 2021 Toscana Bianco IGT (Trebiano Toscano)

Producer's name: Vanempo - Poggio di Cicignano (Italy, Toscana) owned and managed by Laura Fabbri - Michele Sacchetti

This small family owned estate is located in Montemurlo, near Prato, approx 20 km north west of Firenze. The estate elaborates natural wines following the biodynamic techniques.

Total hectares: 15

Vineyards hectares: 8

Yearly production (on average):
19.000 bottles

Viticulture: young vines planted in 2001 on clay and limestone soils, partially stoney and marked with tufa.

Exposition: east, south and west.

Altitude: 350 meters

Varietal: Trebiano 100 %

Training system: Guyot

Vines Density (vines/ha): 5.000

Hectares production (q/ha): 6000 kg

Vineyards' treatment: copper, sulphur, biodynamic preparations

Certifications: Biodynamic certification with AGRIBIO reached starting from the 2019 vintage. The estate is organic certified since 2014. This wine displays as well a vegan certification on the back label.

Harvest: hand made

Vinification: concrete vats

Maceration: 12 hours, no controlled temperature.

Alcoholic Fermentation: Spontaneous with indigenous yeast.

Malolactic fermentation: done spontaneously as well.

Sulphur added: only before the bottling.

The wine is not stabilized mechanically, nor clarified (suitable for vegans) and filtered.

Ageing: 5 months in concrete vats. Extra ageing: 2 months in the bottle.

Total bottles: 3.400 Alchol: 12%

Free sulfites at the bottling: 11mg

Total Sulfites at the bottling: 19mg